

INDEX OF INTERVIEW

with

Myllie E. Durham, Jr., M.D.

Topic	Page
(1) Birth/Family Background	1-4,8
(2) Memories of Working with Physician Father	4
(3) Changes in the Practice of Medicine (Invasion of Privacy)	6
(4) Becoming a Physician (Role Model of Father)	9
Influence of Mother	11,12
Military School	13
(5) Influential Figures
Grandfather	15
George Waldron, MD, Surgeon	52,53
Raymond Gregory, MD	54
(6) Marriage	17, 18
(7) Medical School (1940) Internship - Jeff Davis Hospital	20
(8) Starting a Medical Practice (1940) (Issues of Having Father as a Doctor)	22,23
(9) Differences in Practice of Medicine in 1940 and Today	23, 24, 25
Patients' Respect for Doctor	57
Office Hours and Answering Service	27,42
Golden Years of Medicine	56
Father's Influence/Organized Medicine	28
(10) Army Service	32-34
Korean War	35,36
(11) 1952 Italy (Surgeon)	39
*Interesting Experiences with Communism	40

(12) 1953 - Return to United States as General Practitioner	44
(13) Affect of Specialization on Quality of Care Patients Receive	44,45 46
(14) Development of Durham Clinic	48,49
(15) Residency at Hermann Hospital - 1957	51,52
(16) Hermann Hospital - (How it functioned when it was not associated with UT	50,51
(17) Changes of Doctors' Role with Advent of Medicare/Medicaid	56,57 58
(18) Attempt as President of Harris County Medical Society to Preserve Doctor/Patient Relationship	59 60
(19) Diminishing Role of Doctor in Today's Society	64,65
Loss of Respect for Physician	66,67
Defensive Medicine	69
(20) Rising Cost of Health Care	72
Unionization of Health Care Workers	73
Changing Role of Nurses	73
(21) Organized Medicine	74,75
- Fought building Ben Taub at Medical Center Preferred site at Buffalo Bayou next to Jeff Davis	76,77
- In 1953 Physician advertising considered self- aggrandizement	78
- Today Federal Trade Commission rules that censuring advertising is "restraint of trade"	78
- Foreign physicians	84
- Malpractice - 27% of charges in ER go to defensive medicine	86

- (22) HCMS Fee Adjudication Committee 90
Harris County Medical Society Committee which reviewed physicians' fees at request of patient or third party was discontinued
due to Federal Trade Commission's ruling concerning trade restraints
- (23) Advice to young person going to medical school 91,92
- (24) Dr. Durham's recounts his day of March 14, 1985 93